

July Most Historical Month For U.S.

Independence Declared For Nation In 1776

July is undoubtedly the most historical month in the calendar for the United States.

For it was on July 4, 1776—181 years ago—that the memorable occasion of adoption by the Continental Congress of the Declaration of Independence was planted firmly in the history of the world. That remarkable document was the most advanced, progressive and forward-looking idea ever conceived by the human mind as it envisioned human freedom and independence and also in the Constitution of the United States are so embodied in the national thought of today that to retreat from the ideas, for whatever purpose, is to go backward.

56 Signers Worked For Convictions After War

It is to observe the anniversary of that July 4, 1776, that Independence Day now is observed on that date every year. With the exception of Christmas, it probably is the most widely celebrated holiday in the country.

The Independence Day holiday on July 4 is observed by all Union Carbide Nuclear Company plants and laboratories, when no employees will work with the exception of those required for the continuous operation and protection of the facilities.

The signers of the Declaration of Independence represented a cross section of the population of the colonies at the time. Signers included 24 lawyers, 14 farmers, four doctors, nine merchants, three ministers and three preparing for the ministry. Their background included three born in Ireland, two each in England and Scotland and one in Wales.

The first signer was John Hancock, Massachusetts merchant, as president of the Continental Congress. Dr. Joseph Bartlett, New Hampshire, was second. The oldest signer was Benjamin Franklin, 70. A South Carolina lawyer, Edward Rutledge, 27, was the youngest.

There were 56 stout-hearted signers of the Declaration (they faced hanging for insurrection against the British) and they didn't just go home after they affixed their signatures to the historical document and forget about it. They fought for the convictions they had subscribed to—and after the shooting war was over, they worked for them.

Two of the signers became president of the new nation formed after the Revolution—Thomas Jefferson and John Adams. Another, Elbridge Gerry, became vice president. Several became governors of their states, many served in Congress or in their state legislatures and more served as state or federal judges.

Looking back to the preamble of the Constitution — it is the framework of the American concept. It offers the individual the freedom to choose his own course of action rather than to follow the dictates of a "welfare state" or a "planned economy." It offers every American an opportunity to seek whatever values he desires in whatever way he desires, as long as his efforts do not interfere with the equal rights of his fellow man. It offers the individual citizen a reward for his success, or impose a penalty for his failure.

So—Y-12ers, while you are enjoying the Fourth of July holiday—take stock of what happened in Philadelphia 181 years ago and thank your lucky stars you are an American.

SMALL BUSINESS VITAL

About 50,000,000 Americans now are depending on small businesses for their livelihood. These include owners, employees and their families.

HOT DOGGONE

Americans consumed eight and one-half billion hot dogs during 1956. That was 500,000 more than the consumption the previous year.

Safety Awards To Be Distributed On July 9 And 10

11,514 Items Are Going For Y-12 Participation In 18th, 19th Periods

The Y-12 Safety Department will engage in one of its periodical roles of becoming a "country store" next week when individual safety awards will be distributed to eligible Union Carbide Nuclear Company employees who participated in the 18th and 19th Union Carbide Safety Periods. The distribution will be made on Tuesday and Wednesday, July 9 and 10.

Early Pickup Is Urged

All of the 5,757 UCNC employees to whom the awards will be distributed are urged to pick them up on the two days listed if at all possible and not wait to get them at the Safety Department office later. Of course, employees on vacation when the distribution is made may receive their awards on return.

With the awards being given out in recognition of the two UCC Safety Periods of more than 1,500,000 hours of plant operations without a disabling injury, each eligible employee will receive two articles from Safety Department representatives at the distribution next week. The distribution will be made from 7 a.m. to 8 a.m. and from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the East, North, Central and Bear Creek Portals.

11,514 Articles Selected

A total of 11,514 articles chosen by UCNC employees have been obtained as prizes — there are 15 different items on the list. A one-quart Thermos jug for soups and other heavy liquids led the popularity list with 2,081 being chosen. The other articles selected were coffee brewmaster 1,706, alarm clock 1,127, pruning shears 926, cookie and pastry cutting set 895, Kleenmaster window cleaner 701, minnow bucket 701, shoe shine kit 687, Zippo cigarette lighter 685, stadium cushion 575, film and slide file 467, child's automobile seat 287, salt and pepper shaker set 232, fish scales and ruler 226 and carving board 215.

Meanwhile the Safety Department expects to announce plans for selection of awards for the 20th UCC Safety Period next week. This Safety Period extended from March 13 through May 28 with a total of 2,340,326 hours of plant operations without a disabling injury.

Security Duties Cited By Manager Of AEC

Responsibility Of All To Safeguard Secrets

The importance of the responsibility of every Union Carbide Nuclear Company employee to strictly safeguard all classified information has been stressed by K. E. Fields, general manager of the Atomic Energy Commission in a memorandum to all AEC offices and those of contractors for the AEC.

General Manager Fields' statement says, in part:

Misunderstanding Feared

"Consistent with its responsibility under the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, the Atomic Energy Commission is making every effort to declassify information no longer of significance to the national security. I am concerned, however, that our efforts to declassify information which no longer has security value may give rise to a misunderstanding of the importance of the security program.

"Since the information remaining classified represents data which is vital concern to the national defenses, the importance of

HAMBURGER STEAK ON SPECIAL LUNCH

The always popular dish of hamburger steak with onions will be the entree on the 50-cent Special Lunch at the Y-12 Cafeteria next Tuesday, July 9. The Special Lunch also includes one vegetable, choice of salad or dessert and rolls and butter.

Bargain Hunter Can Get Many At Surplus Sale

Bargain-hunting Y-12ers can begin right now in scheduling visits to the Union Carbide Nuclear Company Property Sales warehouse on River Road near the Elza Gate if they want to pick up a wide variety of surplus articles to be offered for sale at two regular surplus sales and one spot bid sale of a batch of motor vehicles.

The surplus sales are set for Saturday, July 13, and again on Saturday, July 27. The motor vehicle spot bid sale will be on Wednesday, July 17.

The July 17 sale will offer a wide variety of motor vehicles from sedans for the family, scooters for the youngsters, jeeps for all purposes and two busses in good condition—if anybody wants to buy a bus. In addition to the approximately 100 vehicles for sale a quantity of parts and supplies will be sold.

The warehouse will be open at 8 a.m. for inspection of the items for sale and bids will be opened at 1 p.m.

At the general surplus sales the offerings also are attractive for persons hunting household items such as desks, cabinets, door screens and other articles. These sales are open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. and both July 13 and 27 and these sales as well as the spot bid sale are open to the public.

HOSPITAL POLICIES GROW

More than 110,000,000 Americans now are covered by hospitalization today, as compared to only 40,000,000 in 1946.

Advertising Of UCC, TV Program Is Cited

Magazine Honors Won For Fifth Year In Row

Union Carbide's campaign to tell people about itself through advertising has received the Distinguished Public Interest Advertising Award of Saturday Review for the fifth year in a row.

In addition, the Omnibus television program, which the Corporation co-sponsored this season, was cited by the magazine as the program that, in both content and execution, best served the public interest.

Union Carbide's "hand ads" won awards in two subdivisions as well as in the major classification. The subdivisions were Public Relations Campaigns, and Corporate Campaigns.

Omnibus has taken honors in the Saturday Review contest for the last four years—every year since an award has been given for TV programs. Its citation reads: "For continuing to bring to television material that would not ordinarily find a place on the TV schedule, material that opens up new and unexplored fields, material that defies formulas, pleases the judicious and does not patronize the larger viewing public."

FLYING AUTO PRODUCED

Demonstration models of an "automobile that flies" at 100 miles per hour and rolls along the highway at 50 miles per hour are being produced by a western company. The tail and wings fold into a trailer unit. The vehicle fits into a garage and may be mass-produced to sell at $4,000.

Strictly For The Bears—

Fate Of Panhandling Bruins Held As Example As Open Season On Park Visitors Has Arrived

It's open season again in the Great Smoky Mountain National Park for bar's to nibble on unwary and careless humans who persist on violating park rules strictly prohibiting feeding of the critters. In fact, Chief Park Ranger C. E. Johnson, who has issued warning after warning and posted signs throughout the park to visitors to beware the bears—now is considering issuing a warning to "Bre'r Bruin himself—something like this:

"Notice to Bears—Beware of Sabotage.

"We want to warn you that certain humans in this park have been passing out biscuits, soda pop and other items of food to some of your brothers. Keep yourself-respect, avoid them. Don't be pauperized like your uncles were last year.

"You remember what happened to those panhandlers, don't you? Do you want gout, an unbalanced diet, vitamin deficiencies or gas on the stomach? Beware of 'ersatz' foodstuffs and accept only natural foods and hunt these up yourselves.

"These visitors mean well but they will ignore the signs. If they come too close—read this notice to them. They'll catch on after awhile. If you can't read—ask the bear at the next intersection."

Seriously—it's dangerous and can prove costly financially for visitors to have truck with the bears. Several persons have been injured this summer, 18 were hurt in 1956 and 17 the previous year. Fines of $25 have been assessed bear feeders, visitors have had automobiles scratched and damaged and some picnic tables have been raided.

So—beware the bear — they aren't tame by any means and are always even tempered animals—mostly bad.

Reactors Romp On Early Birds

Law's Lads Triumph In First Half Play

The Reactors won the first half of the season play in the Y-12 Plant Softball League by walloping the Early Birds in a double-header last Saturday morning, taking the first contest by 6 to 1 and then pouring it on to the tune of 24 to 3 in the finale. Chandler and Manager Harley Law hurled masterful ball for the winners, who battered Early Bird pitching all the way for the twin triumph. Prior to the scheduled Saturday games, the Wildcats had a slim chance to get into the act as they had a rained out game with the Early Birds to make up.

In early games last week the game but futile Screwballs took four lickings. The Early Birds beat them in a double header by 9-6 and 14-5. Then the Rebels romped by 25 to 1 and to climax it the Reactors turned in a 15 to 2 triumph. This one first was a forfeit to the loop leaders because of a late signed played by the Screwballs, but the teams decided to play it out anyhow.

The Screwballs got out in front in their opener with the Early Birds, but the Birds soon caught up. Hankins, Screwballs; and Bullard, Birds, both homered. In the second game the Birds got off winging and were never stopped as Bullard and Compton each homered.

The Rebels set a season's record for scoring in one inning when they tallied 16 times in the first round. Ernie Collins homered and Teno tripled for the winners.

The Reactors also had no mercy on the four-time losers of the week, starting out fast and maintaining the lead all the way.

The picturesque Gatlinburg Golf and Country Club will be the scene of the fourth Y-12 Golf Tournament of the 1957 season on Saturday morning, July 27. This scenic and rolling golf course, with its numerous natural hazards and unique construction, is expected to draw many Y-12ers for the event.

A revision of the rules for the tournament and addition of more prizes of various numbers of golf balls will be effective for the fourth competition of the summer. To more efficiently classify the players according to handicap and permit more golfers to win awards entrants will be separated into four divisions instead of three.

The First Division will include players with handicaps up to 12 strokes. In the Second Division will be golfers with handicaps of from 13 through 19 strokes. The Third Division will be for players with handicaps from 20 through 27 strokes. The Fourth Division will have players with handicaps of from 28 through 36 strokes.

The handicaps are based on previous tournament play and will be given out to contestants on the morning of the tournament by the official scorer.

The prize list has been expanded to 36 from the previous 27, with nine awards to be made in each of the four divisions. The first four low scorers in handicap and scratch figures for 18 holes will be given prizes as will the golfer in each group with the most pars for the 18 holes.

To reach the Gatlinburg course, Y-12ers should take the Chapman Highway out of Knoxville, U. S. Route 441, through Sevierville to Pigeon Forge. Then make a left turn at the sign "Pigeon Forge Pottery" and proceed to the club grounds.

Green fee for the July 27 tournament will be $3 per player.

Dunlap-Stanley Win In Shoe Ladder

Joe Dunlap and V. A. Stanley had a busy week in the opening sessions of horseshoe pitching in the Y-12 Plant Ladder by winning three matches and advancing from fourth to second place in the standings. Starting from fourth place they successfully challenged Parker Morgan and Loyd Wyatt in third place and then took out after the second-placers, M. B. Hilton and Bill Hackett, who also were beaten. To start their parade the Dunlap-Stanley team repulsed the bid of Clyde Smith and Charley Beckett, who unsuccessfully tried to advance from their sixth place rung.

However, the Smith-Beckett pair held their position by turning back the challenges of Ernie Collins and J. A. Lewis and also of H. Dyer and Joe Dick.

The first report on the ladder standing has Len Hart-Frank Zupan still on top with no matches yet played followed by (2) Dunlap-Stanley, (3) Holton-Hackett, (4) Morgan-Wyatt, (5) Avery Kendig-Charley Gillihan, (6) Smith-Beckett, (7) Collins-Lewis, (8) Dyer-Dick.

Library Facilities Of Area Excellent

Big Majority Of Data Required Is Available

Whenever a Y-12 scientist or others in the three Union Carbide Nuclear Company facilities in Oak Ridge needs to look up a reference, his chances of finding it through libraries in the plant areas, Oak Ridge and Knoxville are excellent, a recent survey by the Oak Ridge Chapter of the Special Libraries Association has revealed.

The survey, made of the holdings of the technical libraries in Oak Ridge and Knoxville that are participating in a cooperative Union List of Serials — as compared to another recent survey of the most frequently cited references in scientific papers — reveal that the odds are unusually high that the libraries can produce the particular periodical or material desired.

Mrs. Ida Mills, of the University of Tennessee Science Library, says that the region's Union List of Serials, which includes technical periodical holdings of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies, the Knoxville Academy of Medicine, Oak Ridge National Laboratory (including the library in the Y-12 Plant Area) and the K-25 Plant is remarkably complete. For instance the Union list lacked only two titles with 14 citations out of a possible 99 titles with 3,168 citations in mathematics. In physics there are only one title with 11 citations missing out of 102 titles and 9,076 citations and in chemistry only five titles with 66 citations out of 101 with 10,052 citations are not available. Similar figures showing a great amount of material available on the subjects of physiology, geology, botany, zoology and entomology were announced by the library group.

MEANS PLAYS DIRTY TRICK ON POOR FISH

Evans Means, Research Services and fisherman deluxe, has come up with a new one that shouldn't even happen to a poor fish — finned or two-legged. Means would wake the poor critters up at 4 a.m. with a tablet of alka-selzer tied on to a hook.

The poor fish, it is believed, will wake to the fizzing of the tablet — and then take one of two courses. If the finny specimen has a hangover he will go for the tablet greedily. If not, he will be irked at being awakened in the middle of the night and take a swipe at the bait anyhow in revenge.

Anyhow — he's hooked. That's what Means says.
